Continuation of 2. NOTE: The "new matter" issue is still not fully resolved since it is not clear if the towel 100 is being set forth as part of the invention (i.e., claim 24) and thereby being considered as "the second frame". Furthermore, the new language and limitation, "in a curved configuration", apparently is clearly illustrated by the prior art of Kellogg 5,992,045 in Figures 4 & 5. A telephone interview can still be initiated by the applicant to thereby further clarify these issues.
